

This is to certify that

Amy Lawson

has successfully completed the course

Paediatric First Aid

with the British Red Cross

Content outlined on page 2 has been delivered in accordance with currently accepted first aid practice.

Mike Adamson
Chief Executive

Valid from:

25 Nov 2022

Valid to:

24 Nov 2025

Certificate No:

P02239

The power of kindness

Certificate

Name: Amy Lawson

Course: Paediatric First Aid

Duration: 2 day(s)

Course Content

Day 1:

Welcome and introduction.

Dealing with an emergency (Assessing a casualty, monitoring a casualty, Where to get help, electrical incidents).

Unresponsive and breathing baby and child (Unresponsive and breathing baby and child and special consideration suspected spinal injury).

Unresponsive and not breathing baby and child.

AED (Use of an AED, chain of survival, safety considerations ('Children' only)).

Choking baby and child.

Hygiene techniques.

Bleeding and wounds (Bleeding heavily from a wound {limb, object in a wound, scalp/head}, small bruises and wounds, small blisters and splinters, nosebleed, eye wounds, bites and stings).

Shock (Shock and internal bleeding).

First aid kits.

Burns.

Day 2:

Objects in the ears and nose.

Accident recording, reporting and administering medication.

Heat exhaustion.

Hypothermia.

Fever and febrile seizures.

Vomiting and diarrhoea.

Meningitis.

Asthma.

Seizures.

Severe allergic reaction.

Diabetic emergency.

Bone, muscle and joint injuries (Broken bones, dislocations, strains and sprains, spinal injury).

Head injury.

Harmful substances (Poisoning and swallowed something harmful).

Unresponsive and breathing adult.

Unresponsive and not breathing adult.

Choking adult.